Approved by: Council & CAO

Effective Date : March 9, 1992

Revision Date: September 5, 2006

Rationale

The following policy establishes guidelines for directory signage at the entrance points of the Industrial Park to ensure a uniform and professional appearance.

Policy Statement

- 1) If a business wishes to have a sign on the directory board of the industrial park it is the business' responsibility to procure the signs according to the following specifications:
 - a) Signs must be made in sets of two – one for each side of the board.
 - b) The physical size of each sign is to be six inches high by twenty-three inches long, with a thickness not exceeding one quarter inch.
 - c) Signs are to be white with green lettering consistent with that found on the Industrial Park sign.
 - d) Text may occupy one or two lines, however letter height may not exceed four inches.

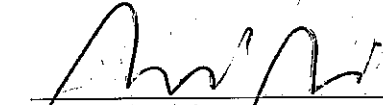

Previous Policies

The previous policy 8/1 "Signage Industrial Park Directory Board" passed April 14, 1992 is hereby amended
